Turin, February 3, N. S.

THE Marqueſs d'Aix is arrived with his Lady and Family from Savoy, and is making diligent Preparations to ſet out ſoon for Vienna, where he is to reſide as Envoy from his Sardinian Majeſty. The Prince of Franche-Ville is alſo come from Naples, upon Advice ſent him that the Princeſs his Spouſe was fallen dangerouſly ill: He has found her alive, but without Hopes of Recovery. On the 1ſt Inſtant died of a violent Fever the Count de Saluçes, deſcended from a noble Family, and as he had the Character of a worthy Man and an experienced Officer, he is generally lamented; he was a Major-General and Captain of one of the Troops of Life-Guards. This Week arrived here Count Rotoski, a natural Son of the King of Poland, accompanied by a French Governour, and by Count Caſtelli, a Gentleman of this Country, who is in his Father's Service. He has a handſome Retinue, but being a little indiſpoſed has not yet appeared at Court.

Stockholm, Jan. 20, O. S. Friday laſt the 15th Inſtant being the Anniverſary of the preſent King of Sweden's Arrival at Stockholm, their Swediſh Majeſties received in the Evening the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters on this Occaſion: There was a very ſplendid Ball at Court, their Majeſties ſupped in publick, and an Ode in the German Language, compoſed by a very diſtinguiſhed Genius in this Country, was ſung to a fine Concert of Muſick. There were likewiſe ſeveral other Tables, at which the Ladies and Perſons of Diſtinction preſent were magnificently entertained. After Supper the Ball began again, and continued till their Majeſties retired.

Vienna, Jan. 31, N. S. Field-Marſhal Count Thaun began his Journey from hence on the 28th Inſtant, and the Duke of Aremberg will follow him To-morrow.

Bruſſels, Feb. 14, N. S. Field Marſhal Count Thaun being expected here this Day, Orders were ſent Yeſterday to a Detachment of Dragoons to attend him at Tirlemont, and this Day another Party of 25 Dragoons with an Officer was ordered to meet his Excellency a League and half out of this Place. The Burgomaſter of Louvain has been here for Orders and Leave to fire the Cannon at the Town's Expence on the ſaid Count's paſſing through it; and the Magiſtrates of this Place propoſe to wait at the Gate with a Company of Burghers under Arms, to preſent the Keys to this our new Governour General.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majeſty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a conſiderable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Perſon concerned in the ſaid Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by adviſing or contriving the ſame, will ſurrender himſelf and make a free Diſcovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as they or any one of them ſhall be apprehended and convicted for the ſame, ſuch Perſon, whether concerned in the ſaid Felony, or in adviſing, contriving or being privy thereto, ſhall have His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement ſhall have a Reward of One Thouſand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury. And if any other Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover, apprehend, and convict any Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Felony, he or they ſhall receive the like Reward of One Thouſand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.

Whereas the Perſons who broke open the Exchequer, left behind them a new ſmall Gimblet, marked I B. upon the Handle, a Butcher's Hook with a little Notch upon the End of the flat Part, a ſmall Cord, a ruſty Tin Pot whited within, in which are ſome Pieces of Touchwood, and an old pointed Knife with a rough Back, as if uſed to ſtrike Fire with, in a black Leather Caſe, having a Cork for an Handle: Any Perſon or Perſons who lately ſold ſuch Things, or can give Account to whom they belong, are deſired to come to Lord William Powlett's Office at the Exchequer, and view the ſame, and if they ſhall thereby diſcover, or contribute to the Diſcovery of the Perſon or Perſons to whom they were ſold, or do belong, ſhall have Ten Guineas Reward, to be paid by me John Grainger.

General Poſt-Office, Jan. 22, 1724-5.

Whereas the Cheſter Mail was robbed this Morning about Four a-Clock by two Highway-men, who overtook the Poſt-Boy between Redbourn and St. Albans, the one of them a luſty Man mounted upon a bay Horſe in a looſe Riding Coat, and a double-breaſted Coat with Braſs Buttons under it; the other a litile Man mounted upon a grey Horſe, alſo in a looſe Riding Coat, who after having diſmounted and bound the Boy, rifled the Mail, and took out moſt of the Bags, which they put into other Bags of their own, and tied them behind upon their Horſes, and rode off towards St. Albans: This is to give Notice, That if any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apprehend the ſaid Highwaymen who have committed this Robbery, will, upon their being convicted, be intituled to the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each of them, as publiſhed in the Gazettes, over and above the Rewards given by Act of Parliament for Apprehending of Highway-men: Or if either of them, or any Perſon concerned with them as an Accomplice, ſhall make a Diſcovery of them, or either of them, or any of their Accomplices, ſo as they may be convicted, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo making the Diſcovery ſhall not only be intituled to the Rewards above-mentioned for each Perſon convicted, but ſhall alſo be intituled to a Pardon, as promiſed in the Gazettes by His Majeſty's ſpecial Command.

South-Sea-Houſe, Jan. 28, 1724-5.

The General Court of the South-Sea Company held at Merchant Taylors Hall having this Day come to the following Reſolution, viz.

That it be referred to the Court of Directors at any Time on or before the laſt Day of March next, to Compound or Agree with the Borrowers on the Company's Loan in the Year 1720, in ſuch Manner as they ſee Reaſonable,

The Court of Directors of the ſaid Company think fit to publiſh the ſaid Reſolution for the Information of all Perſons concerned.
